I would like to share with you a miracle that happened to one of the persons on our prayer list. We asked prayer for Danny Bordella because he was going to have brain surgery, and he had a tumor on his brain. Well, he was operated on that next Friday, and the doctors said that it was in a capsule and they got it all! Not only that, but he came home the next Thursday, and a week later he was back up to the hospital to see his aunt. His nurse told him that she had had the same surgery, and it took her months to recuperate. But the best part of it all is that Danny was never a believer in prayer before, but this has made him a believer, and he tells everyone that prayer was what saved him.

I was put on your list for prayers in February 1981 and many things happened that month. I asked prayers for spiritual needs. A local pastor's wife called me that month and offered to council and disciple me! The doctor told me about a tumor. A cyst, which I also had was healed that month. The tumor was discovered to be benign, but large. I am requesting prayers that the tumor also will be healed. Praise the Lord.

PROGRAMS

THE HEALING MINISTRY

The Lord blesses this work with many remarkable healings of body, mind and spirit. At Faith Center we conduct counseling, and healing prayers both for the physically ill and for those who are oppressed emotionally and by conflicts in their lives. We reach out to those who are institutionalized and bedridden with the healing love of Jesus Christ, and through our prayer fellowship, the Circle of Power, to people all over the world.

THE PRISON MINISTRY

Our work focuses on the importance of each person undergoing a profound personal change, by receiving Christ, so that, upon release, he or she does not simply return to a self-destructive lifestyle. Our current programs include counseling in Georgia's death row and at Atlanta's Federal Penitentiary, and weekly Prayer Meetings at Atlanta Women's Transitional Center (a half-way house).

ANIMAL ACTION

When God gave mankind dominion over the earth and its creatures He did not have in mind the abuse and abandonment of His creatures, nor their torture in scientific experiments. Nevertheless these things happen on a vast scale. We, therefore, give a very high priority to working against such abuse wherever we can, including the promotion of legislation.

THE END AND THE NEW BEGINNING.

Rev. Charity Benedicte prays with a young member of the Assembly during the Lord's Day Celebration, Sundays at 1 PM.

"See, the Lord is going to lay waste the earth and devastate it. . . ."

Isaiah 24:1

Whether we search the scriptures of the Old or New Testaments we cannot avoid references to the ending of the world as we have known it, followed by the dawning of a whole new world. And living, as we do, in times of ever-increasing crises — whether it be "wars and rumors of wars," or population explosion, assassinations, famines or natural disasters — we would be very blind if we did not come to a recognition that the End Times are upon us. We can see without too much difficulty that things are going to get a whole lot worse before they get better.

As things become more critical, fear may drive men to do all kinds of things to avoid or prevent the inevitable — to riot, to demonstrate, to sign petitions (to name only a few). But the End is with us whether we like it or not. We cannot avoid the signs unless we refuse to read a newspaper or listen to the news.

And until it has happened we cannot have a "new heaven and a new earth." Nor will God "wipe away all tears from our eyes." So how do we relate to the End? How do we relate to increasing "wars and rumors of wars"?

By God's grace we know that these things must be and that the End must come about. We know that evil must be destroyed. We know that all pain and suffering must be brought to an end.

But we also know that God looks after His own. Our job is to be ready for the return of Jesus Christ. Our job is to be the good and faithful servant, keeping faith with our Master until He comes.

For as Jesus said to His disciples, and as He is saying to all of us who would be with Him, ". . . And surely I will be with you always, to the very end of the age," (Matthew 28:20).

Bob Kellar, an Aide, or full-time assistant to the ministry akin to a lay brother, puts his considerable technical and mechanical skills to work for the Lord. Arriving one Christmas Day, he is literally a Godsend, keeping everything working around Faith Center.

Their visit to Chicago will last a week, and will conclude with an all-day workshop.

ANIMAL ACTION

The Lord guides us to draw your attention to the very inspired work being done on behalf of animals by the Northeastern Ministries of The Foundation Faith of God. Not only do they run a beautiful animal shelter, Faith Sanctuary, but they also publish a monthly newsletter, which is full of up-to-the-minute news regarding pending legislation concerning animals. The newsletter also gives detailed information on such important topics as alternatives to animal research. If you would like to receive their newsletter, please write: Northeastern Ministries, PO Box 97, Lakewood, PA 18439.

ANGEL WORKSHOP

As advertised in our June newsletter, a workshop, "The Realm of Angels," was held at Faith Center, June 19th. We thank God for a very enjoyable and inspiring workshop, full of the presence of His Holy Angels, and for the powerful contribution made by all attenders.

MEDIA NOTES

Rev. John Christopher recently appeared with host, Bill Benton, on radio station WXEQ, out of Columbia, South Carolina. The show lasted an hour and included questions from listeners. The topic was animals, and Rev. Christopher reported strong agreement with the message the Lord has guided us to proclaim from those who called. Praise God for opportunities such as this.

Rev. John Christopher, appearing recently on the radio, discusses animals, their great importance to the Lord, and the wonderful healing effects they can channel to those who love and care for them.

"You will be filled with shame instead of glory. Now it is your turn! Drink and be exposed! The cup from the Lord's right hand is coming around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory. The violence you have done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and your destruction of animals will terrify you. For you have shed man's blood; you have destroyed lands and cities and everyone in them."
